

International Study Tour on Bespoke Leadership and Good Governance in Public Sector at UK (August 2025)

Join us for an exclusive International Study Tour on Bespoke Leadership and Good Governance, organized by the National Academy of Human Resource Development (NAHRD) in collaboration with the Civil Service College, UK (CSC).

About NAHRD

National Academy of Human Resource Development (NAHRD) was established in 2012 to deliver competency-enhancing learning to officials of Ministries, Public Sector Undertakings, Autonomous Bodies, Statutory Authorities, and Insurance Companies. NAHRD has organized countless National and International Trainings and Workshops in the past, which have been very well attended and highly appreciated by officials of various organizations. NAHRD is also conducting workshops in association with a number of organizations such as Indian Institute of Public Administration, Competition Commission of India, The Institute of Companies Secretaries of India, PHD Chamber of Commerce & Industry.

CIVIL SERVICE COLLEGE

Civil Services College, UK (CSC) acquired the training programs from the National School of Government and aims to transform the performance of public services through practical, interactive learning and capacity development. CSC is one of the leading providers of high-quality training for civil servants and public sector workers, in the UK and overseas.
