WORKSHOP ON FINANCE FOR NON-FINANCE AT KATHMANDU (NEPAL)

National Academy of Human Resource Development (NAHRD) was established to deliver competency-enhancing learning to officials of Central Government, State Governments, Public Sector Undertakings, Autonomous Bodies, Banks, Insurance Companies, etc. We have organized large number of workshops in the past, which have been very well attended and appreciated by officials of various organizations across the country.

A workshop on Finance for Non-Finance is being organized by NAHRD 18.02.2026 to 21.02.2026 at Kathmandu (Nepal).

This program is designed for non-finance professionals, including those in marketing, HR, R&D, vigilance, administration, business development, establishment, production, procurement and contracts. It aims to equip participants with essential financial decision-making skills for budgeting, pricing, cost-saving, and growth strategies. The program provides a solid understanding of financial accounting and management concepts, even for those with no prior finance background. Participants will learn to analyze financial statements and grasp key accounting principles and techniques. Practical applications are emphasized, enabling participants to make informed business decisions. By the end, they will feel confident in using financial insights to make work more effective. After workshop, participants shall have themselves updated on the following:

- Financial Statements
- Debt & Equity
- Financial Statement Analysis
- Working Capital Management
- Cost Concepts
- Budgets & Budgetary Controls
- Capital Budgeting
- Goods & Services Tax
- Understanding of GFR and procurement

Workshop Methodology

This training aims to help professionals be well versed with the introductory nuances of finance in different functional areas and help in decision making. Deciphering financial concepts and developing the ability to see the business implications of numbers is a key outcome of this program.
