National Academy of Human Resource Development (NAHRD) was established to deliver competency-enhancing learning to officials of Central Government, State Governments, Public Sector Undertakings, Autonomous Bodies, Banks, Insurance Companies, etc. We have organized large number of workshops in the past, which have been very well attended and appreciated by officials of various organizations across the country.

A workshop on New Criminal Laws in India is being organized by NAHRD from 10.06.2026 to 13.06.2026 at Leh, Ladakh.

India's criminal justice, effective July 2024, system has undergone a monumental and mandatory transformation, replacing the foundational colonial-era statutes with the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhinyam (BSA). And this transformation with the introduction of the new criminal codes, replacing long-standing colonial-era laws. These reforms aim to ensure speedy justice, victim-centric processes, procedural clarity, and technology-enabled enforcement. Navigating this new 'justice-centric' legal landscape is not optional—it is a critical mandate for every legal and administrative professional. This essential NAHRD workshop is meticulously designed to provide the comprehensive, practical mastery required to transition seamlessly. By focusing on the direct impact on investigation protocols, evidence admissibility (especially digital evidence), and the definition of new offences, participants will gain the confidence to ensure full statutory compliance, procedural efficiency, and judicial readiness under the new codes. After the workshop the participants shall have updated themselves in the following aspects:

- Overview of the New Criminal Codes
- Identify differences between old and new provisions
- Repealed, modified, and newly introduced provisions
- Understand the rationale and philosophy behind the new criminal codes
- Gain clarity on key structural and procedural changes
- Understand the impact on investigation, trial, evidence, and adjudication
- Appreciate the role of technology and digital processes
